FOREWORD

THE Collection here catalogued was presented to the City of Gloucester by COUNCILLOR C. H. DANCEY on the 31st of May, 1911, the Minutes of the City Council of that date recording the proceedings as follows:— 1378412

AT A MEETING of the Council of the City of Gloucester, held at the Guildhall, on Wednesday, the 31st day of May, 1911.

GIFT BY MR. C. H. DANCEY.

The Mayor stated that it was the 11th Anniversary of the opening of the Gloucester Public Library, and therefore he thought it appropriate that he should at once read a letter which he had that morning received from COUNCILLOR C. H. DANCEY:—

6, MIDLAND ROAD,
GLOUCESTER,

31st May, 1911.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,

At a Meeting arranged by the Bristol and Gloucestershire Archæological Society and held at the Guildhall, on the 16th January last, Mr. Roland Austin (the Librarian of the Gloucester Public Library) read a very interesting paper on "Some Gloucestershire Books and their Writers"; and, after referring to the books and pamphlets in the Reference Library and explaining how they had been acquired, he intimated that if Citizens and others would allow him to look over books which they did not want to keep, he might find some which would be worth preserving in the Reference Library.

As you are aware, I took much interest in the establishment of the Gloucester Public Library. The Public Libraries Act, 1892, was adopted on 29th May, 1894, and came into operation in the City on 25th March, 1895. In order to comply with the conditions on which the balance of the Price Memorial Fund was made available for the purchase of books for the Library, the City Council decided to establish a Public Library by opening a Reference Library in one of the rooms on the ground floor of the Guildhall and the Library was formally opened on the 30th December, 1897. In January, 1898, I offered to assist the Library Committee and was appointed Hon. Librarian, and I acted in that capacity until Mr. Austin took up his duties as Librarian shortly before the Public Library in Brunswick Road was opened on the 31st May, 1900. Since that time, as a Member of the Library Committee, I have continued to watch the growth of the Library and been pleased to find it so much used and appreciated by the Citizens.

For some years I have been collecting books and pamphlets more or less connected with the City of Gloucester ; and, with the kind assistance of Mr. Austin, I have selected a number of them which, I think, might fittingly be placed in the Reference Library.

Bearing in mind Judge Powell's bequest of books for the use of the Citizens of Gloucester and knowing how these books have been cared for and appreciated, I have much pleasure in giving the books and pamphlets mentioned in the annexed Schedule (hereafter referred to as "the books") to the Mayor, Recorder, City High Sheriff and Town Clerk for the time being of the City of Gloucester (hereafter referred to as "the Trustees") upon and subject to the following trusts and conditions :—

1. Subject as hereafter mentioned, I request and empower the Trustees to deposit the Books with the Librarian in the Gloucester Public Library for the free use of the Citizens and Visitors to the Library, subject to proper and suitable provision being made and maintained for the books in the Reference Department of the Library or some room or part thereof to be specially appropriated for books relating to the City of Gloucester ; but in the event of the Library Committee not making such provision within one year from this date, or not afterwards maintaining it to the satisfaction of the Trustees, I desire and empower the Trustees to remove the books from the Public Library ; and in the event of any subsequent failure to make or maintain such proper and suitable provision for a period of six calendar months after notice from the Trustees to the Library Committee calling their attention to the matter, then and in any such case I empower the Trustees either to deposit the books upon similar conditions in any other Library in the City or County of Gloucester to which the public are freely admitted or to give them to the Trustees for the time being of the British Museum.

2. Save as aforesaid, I desire that none of the books shall be removed from the Library in which they may be deposited, except for exhibition or any other special and temporary purpose approved by the Trustees; and that any manuscripts and note books or extracts therefrom shall not be published without the previous written permission of the Librarian or the Trustees.

3. If practicable, I should like the books to be kept in a separate case or cases, and to be known as "The Dancey Gift."

I trust this gift may be appreciated by my fellow Citizens and that it may induce others to take an interest in and endeavour to preserve books and other things relating to the ancient City of Gloucester.

I am, dear Mr. Mayor,

Yours faithfully,

C. H. DANCEY.

JAMES BRUTON, ESQ.,
Mayor of Gloucester.

After reading the letter, the Mayor stated that he had conferred with the Chairman of the Library Committee, who felt sure the Committee would be glad to comply with the conditions on which the Trustees were authorised to deposit the Books in the Gloucester Public Library, for the free use of the Citizens and Visitors to the Library, and proposed to ask the Committee to appoint a small Sub-Committee, of which COUNCILLOR DANCEY should be one, to make the necessary provision for the Books, and see that the terms of the trust are duly observed.

Moved by the Mayor, seconded by Coun. Langley-Smith.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY :—

That the warmest thanks of this Council be given to COUNCILLOR C. H. DANCEY for his most generous Gift, and that the Library Committee be requested to endeavour to comply with the conditions as to the disposition and use of the Books and Manuscripts.

The above proceedings were reported to the Library Committee at a Meeting held on the 2nd of June, when the following Resolution was passed:—

“That this Committee have heard with much pleasure of the most generous gift made by COUNCILLOR DANCEY, will gladly undertake the duties imposed by the Trust as recorded on the Minutes of the City Council of the 31st of May, and wish to express the satisfaction they would feel if MR. DANCEY’S name could be associated with the Trustees named in his letter to the Mayor.”

COUNCILLOR DANCEY’S letter conveying this gift fully explains his long connection with the Public Library, and also his interest in local literature. The Collection now deposited in the Library comprises 225 volumes, 321 pamphlets, and 150 prints and portraits relating to Gloucestershire, many of these being of exceptional interest, as will be seen by the notes appended to the entries in the Catalogue.

In addition to the printed matter COUNCILLOR DANCEY has included his series of manuscripts illustrating the histories of the Saxon Churches of Gloucester, which have been compiled from City Records, Parish Registers and Records, and other sources. With these are his note-books, which are full of matter relating to local history.

There are also over 400 volumes relating to the surrounding Counties, Wales, and of general literature, these forming a welcome addition to the Reference Library.

A special case for the Collection has been provided in the Gloucestershire Room.

The Gloucestershire books and pamphlets have been catalogued, so far as possible, by subject, the entries under each heading being arranged chronologically. An Author-Index is added.

GLOUCESTER :
HISTORY

Histories of the Saxon Churches of Gloucester compiled by C. H. Dancey, from City and Parochial Records, and other sources. 10 vols. MS.

The Churches are St. Mary de Crypt, St. Mary de Lode, St. Mary de Grace, St. Michael, St. Nicholas, St. John, Holy Trinity, St. Aldate, St. Martin and All Saints.

The volumes are illustrated with many plates recording the heraldry in the Churches. These are the work of Mr. Armstrong Howitt and were done by Mr. Dancey's wish. There are also photographs of interesting documents, and original drawings by Mr. F. S. Waller.

A series of Note-Books compiled by C. H. Dancey containing extracts from City and Parochial Records, etc.

Certain Speeches made upon the day of the Yearly Election of Officers in the City of Gloucester...By John Dorney Town-Clerke. 1653.

An interleaved copy in the possession, in 1790, of James Dallaway, who wrote the description of the coats of arms of each Mayor mentioned in the Speeches. An inscription at the end of the book, in Mr. G. A. Howitt's writing, states

"By Mr. C. H. Dancey's wish I, George Armstrong Howitt, certify that I drew and coloured these armorial bearings for him beneath Mr. Dallaway's written descriptions."

The Coats have been very beautifully and correctly drawn by Mr. Howitt, the descriptions by Mr. Dallaway being exceedingly clear. On the title is the autograph of "Petri Le Neve Norroy," and pasted on the blank leaf before the title is the autograph signature of John Dorney.

— Another copy, in Manuscript, presented by J. J. Powell to J. P. Wilton.
